To Alberobello in the Puglia region

Day 2

Trulli Cottages, Alberobello

95 B,D

Driving across the spine of Italy – the Apennine Mountains – we continue deep into the Puglia region to the remarkable city of Alberobello where we stay three nights. This is one of the most unusual towns you will ever see. The whole city centre is a mass of whitewashed 'bee hive' type houses called 'Trulli' which date back hundreds of years. Puglia is known as Italy's bread basket and is also justifiably famous for its olive oils, wine and local produce. Dinner tonight is included in a local restaurant.

Alberobello sightseeing, 'My Time' and wine tasting

Day 3

Trulli Cottages, Alberobello

95 B

This morning we are joined by a local guide who will take us on a walking tour of this remarkable 'bee hive' town. In the afternoon we will enjoy a relaxing tasting of local wines. The rest of your afternoon and evening are at leisure.

Ancient Lecce and the white city of Ostuni

Day 4

Trulli Cottages, Alberobello

95 B

Driving down into the Salentine Peninsula – the 'heel of Italy' – we spend the morning exploring the city of Lecce on a walking tour with our local guide. Dating back to the early Greek empire, the city boasts numerous baroque monuments and also has a Roman amphitheatre on the central square. Later we visit 'La Città Bianca' (the 'white city') of Ostuni. Perched on a hill, with views down over the coast, we enjoy time at leisure amongst the winding streets and white washed alleys.

Polignano a Mare and ancient Matera

Day 5

Le Grotte della Civita, Matera

95 B,D

Passing hamlets and typical Pugliese 'masserie' (fortified large estate-farms), we reach the port of Monopoli. Later we continue to the nearby coastal town of Polignano a Mare. Built directly on the cliffs over the sea, Polignano is famous for its gelato and ice cream parlours and makes a perfect lunch stop. Crossing to the 'ankle' of Italy we reach the extraordinary city of Matera - reputed to be the oldest inhabited settlement in Italy, the town encompasses rock churches and numerous Sassi (including the cave complex hotel we will be staying in) with the more 'modern' baroque town on top of the hill. We also visit the Crypt of the Original Sin, located inside one of the many natural caves, adorned with thousand-year-old Biblical frescoes and nicknamed 'The Sistine Chapel of Rupestrian Art'. Your next two nights will be memorable! This evening we dine al fresco style on the terrace of our cave hotel.

Matera sightseeing and 'My Time'

Day 6

Le Grotte della Civita, Matera

95 B

This morning we are joined by a local guide who will show us around this extraordinary town from the ancient rock hewn churches to the baroque city above. We have included entrance to La Casa Grotta – a typically furnished cave dwelling, to gain an insight in to how families lived in their 'Sassi' houses. Your afternoon and evening are free to relax and explore.

Ancient ruins of Syracuse and Ortigia Island

Day 9

Excelsior Palace Hotel, Taormina

Driving past Catania we reach the city of Syracuse, where we are joined by a local guide. First stop will be at the temples and massive amphitheatre in the 2500 year old Greek and Roman ruins. We will also visit the overgrown quarries and test the amazing acoustics in the famous 'Ear of Dionysus' cavern. Later we cross onto Ortigia Island, the heart of ancient Syracuse, to wander through the delightful backstreets to the breathtaking architecture of the main square, Piazza del Duomo. Enjoy time to find a quiet café or trattoria for a leisurely lunch.

Mt Etna adventure followed by a leisurely lunch

Day 10

Excelsior Palace Hotel, Taormina

B,L

What an adventure today! First we drive up the slopes of Mount Etna to Sapienza Refuge, lying at the south of the crater at an elevation of 1910 metres. Here we board a cable car up to a restaurant and museum at 2500 metres where we meet our local guide who will drive us in a large 4WD bus up to the (usually snow covered) viewing crater area at 2920 metres. You will now be standing on the highest active volcano in Europe with views across to the steaming caldera on one side and the Sicilian coastline far below. All around you will see craters, caldera and petrified lava flow. Following this magnificent experience we descend to the village of Forza d'Agro, just north of Taormina. This area was the setting for some scenes from the film 'The Godfather', and is the perfect location for another leisurely, typically 'Italian style' lunch. The rest of the day and evening is free back in beautiful Taormina.

Piazza Armerina and Agrigento

Day 11

The Colleverde Park Hotel, Agrigento

B,D

Cutting through the heart of Sicily we reach Piazza Armerina where a local guide will take us through the opulent Villa Romana del Casale. Later we arrive in Agrigento on the south coast, where we stay two nights.

Valley of the Temples and lunch at Mandranova

Day 12

The Colleverde Park Hotel, Agrigento

This afternoon we will drive east to the farm of Mandranova, to enjoy an olive oil tasting and light lunch.

Sciacca and lunch at the famous Vittorio's restaurant

Later we continue to our hotel inland from Marsala where we stay the next three nights.

Temple ruins at Segesta and Erice

Here you will still find the remains of the ancient Phoenician fortifications and in the old city there are still two castles. Pepoli Castle which dates from Saracen times and the Venus Castle built by the Normans. Time to relax and wander through the quaint old alleys and cobblestoned streets of the old town, and find a trattoria in a peaceful courtyard to enjoy lunch. This evening before dinner we will enjoy a wine tasting.

Tour Suitability

- ✎ In mid-summer, the heat may be energy sapping.
- ✎ In Alberobello and Matera or unique style of accommodation is incredible. In Alberobello we stay in Trulli which are scattered, self-contained 'beehive' houses. Whilst spread around a relatively small area of town, you will need to make your own way to and from the coach meeting points and breakfast centre.
- ✎ In Matera our Sassi or 'Caves' are the genuinely authentic. They are all quite easily accessible, in a small area close to the office, but accessed via stone steps and uneven ground.
- ✎ Matera is set on a hill and access to the upper levels is by foot up winding, stone streets.
- ✎ Mount Etna is exactly that - a mountain! The first part of this excursion is easy. Coach to the first level, close to smaller extinct craters. The next section is also relatively easy being small bubble cable cars up to the restaurant and museum. The altitude here is 2,500 metres so should not be a problem to anyone. The last section can be a little more difficult as you are travelling by 4WD up to 2,900 metres. From here we enjoy a walk around a (quiet!) volcanic crater which takes us up over a ridge. It is not that it is far, it is that you are suddenly at moderate altitude (which is why the views are amazing!) and your breath comes with more effort. The gravelly dust has less immediate grip but is not slippery. You can choose to stay and enjoy the views from the 4WD drop off point or join the 500 metre guided walk. The guide makes a number of stops, each about a hundred metres apart. There is plenty of time, and it is not a race. From experience, with patience and taking it easy, anyone with moderate fitness can do it if they pace themselves. The experience at the top is exhilarating but, above all, you will have the choice as to how far up you want to go.
- ✎ Please ensure you have the correct footwear - comfortable enclosed walking shoes are required for your visits in Matera and up Mount Etna.
